Nice to meet you

For 48 years, the Syracuse New Times has been a community voice depicting a variety of lifestyles and views. Fiercely independent and decidedly alternative, the Syracuse New Times provides expanded insightful commentary and information on the issues Central New Yorkers face everyday. We are the most trusted, insightful voice in the community, bringing you stories and commentary that are evocative, provocative, humorous, and sometimes infuriating, opinionated and sarcastic, but always a credible informative and trusted source of information.

The Syracuse New Times is on your side with stories and information for you to help plan your life or your weekend. What we are not, is the “paper of record”. No ribbon-cuttings and press releases here. We decide what is newsworthy and worthy of comment with stories that we know the community needs to be aware of.

And as always, the Syracuse New Times will continue to be the “go to” source of coverage of the arts, entertainment, dining and community events throughout Central New York. We help educated, affluent, discerning readers decide what to do with their discretionary time and income. We provide coverage done with passion and authority, built on an extensive calendar of things to do over the weekend.

The "best chicken tenders on earth." Michael Davis photos

TENDER(S) IS THE NIGHT AT TULLY'S

Good times and new ways to have them are happening at Tully's these days. We recently dropped in to the Erie Boulevard East location, which was entirely remodeled eight months ago. Now, the inside is open and spacious and the walls are lined with big-screen televisions; dozens of them. It is the perfect venue for watching any game.

Speaking of games, if you don't want to watch them at Tully's, they offer party platters to-go, perfect for tailgating this fall at Syracuse University. My daughter's SU sorority served platters of their chicken tenders to prospective new members last year; the sorority credits Tully's with one of their most successful recruitments ever!

Those famous chicken tenders, so famous that they are the BEST CHICKEN TENDERS ON EARTH* (yes, it is actually registered!), are handmade hand-battered from fresh, never frozen chicken. Served with their homemade ranch dressing, or the more famous honey mustard (now available bottled in local grocery stores), these tasty strips filled us up so much we could barely try anything else. Maybe that's because general manager Mike Salerno also had us try the Asian tenders, coated in a spicy-sweet chili sauce. There are Buffalo tenders, too. The options are endless: You can get the appetizer portion, as an entree, a platter of 10 or three on the side. Salerno told us that about 40 percent of his customers have the chicken tenders in one form or another. He estimated the largest tender order they ever filled was for 2,500, plus he had an order for 300 going out the next morning. As he pointed out, if you are feeding a large and diverse group, you are guaranteed to please if the tenders are on the menu.

As part of the upgrade on Erie Boulevard, they went from six to 40 draft beers, with multiple craft brew choices. Draft selections will soon expand at their other locations, and they will fill a growler with the draft of your choice.

With dinner specials changing seasonally and new specials including fish and sirloin steak, along with some rocking salads, you certainly can satisfy whatever diverse group you might bring to any of their Syracuse, Buffalo, Rochester or Binghamton locations. Come hungry, especially if you are going to tackle the Mountain Melt, which is a burger stuffed between two grilled cheese sandwiches. My husband felt he embarrassed himself when he couldn't finish it. I went with the fish tacos, which were more like a quesadilla, spicy and cheesy. The serving contained three large triangles; I ended up taking home the other two. We actually went to try some of the new menu items, like the Chili Lime Shrimp Salad or Chicken Pepperoni Parmesan fettuccine, but the tried-and-trues were so tempting we never got there.

Tully's supports our community. They just donated $10,000 to the Special Olympics, work with the Susan G. Komen and Carol Baldwin organizations, and sponsor several dozen Little League baseball teams.

PRODUCTION GUIDELINES

DEADLINES

The Syracuse New Times is published weekly on Wednesdays. The deadline for e-mailed ads and/or artwork is the Thursday prior to publication.

E-MAILED AD SPECIFICATIONS

Please discuss with your advertising representative how you will be creating your ad. This way you can decide if you or the Creative Services Department should create the ad.

Accepted File Formats

• PDF format (preferred) with all fonts embedded.

Other accepted formats: .TIF, .EPS, .JPG (.JPG is not recommended)

NO WORD OR PUBLISHER DOCUMENTS PLEASE

- All artwork used in the creation of .pdf files should be a minimum 200 dpi (dots per inch) at print size.
- File colorspace, images and text MUST be CMYK (no Spot or RGB)
- All black text and boxes need to be solid 1-color black. (any text 9pt or smaller should always be 1-color black)
- Any color text is recommended to not contain more than 2 CMYK colors. (The same applies for color boxes with white text inside).
- Fonts would ideally be set in InDesign, Illustrator or another vector program and embedded.
- If exported from InDesign, the layers should not be flattened unless the file is too large.
- Logos: High res images, please. Quality of images on websites is only 72 spi and will not print well.

ELECTRONIC FILES SPECIFICATIONS (NOT COMPLETE ADS)

If you decide the Creative Services Department should create your ad, but you want to supply artwork, logos or copy here are our guidelines

- Accepted file formats for photos and/or logos: .tif; .eps; .jpg files
- Artwork supplied in the above image file formats should be a minimum 200 dpi (dots per inch) Artwork pulled from the web is a standard 72dpi and is not acceptable
- High-res versions of logos should be provided whenever possible
- Color artwork should be supplied in CMYK mode.
- To submit copy for your ad either submit a .txt file as an attachment to your e-mail or copy and paste your information in the body of the e-mail
